TERRORISM INSURANCE

Terrorism Insurance

Under the federal Terrorist Risk Insurance Program Act (TRIP) enacted after 9/11, an act of terrorism is any violent act dangerous or damaging to human life, property, or infrastructure within the United States or to a US air carrier, vessel, or United States mission abroad, committed by an individual or individuals against US civilians or the government.

Under TRIP, the General Liability carrier must include terrorist acts among covered events in their policies.

The Home School Legal Defense Association (HSLDA) does not assume any of the insurance risk provided by the carriers. HSLDA is not involved in the administration of these plans including premium collection or adjudication of claims.
